Building Wrecked and Three Men Hurt at Chester, Pa.

(By Associated Press.)

CHESTER, Pa., April 10.—An aniline tank in the padding room of the Eddystone Print Works exploded with terrific force last night, seriously injuring three men and wrecking the building and valuable machinery. The injured men are: John Henry, Michael Mübermott and John Mooney.

The explosion was caused by dust that got in the fan and ignited the chemicals.

STILL LOOKING FOR WYCKOFF

Leaving $35,000 in Debts. BLOOMSBURG, N. J., April 10.-The Wyckoff, who left Ashury Park on successful Pension attorney, writes as follows: Thursday last, leaving about $15,000 of unsettled accounts, is still a mystery. unsettled accounts, is still a mystery. His friends deny all knowledge of his present whereabouts, but the villagers believe that he is in hiding and will stay away until his affairs can be arranged. Many estates have been intrusted to the ex-Senator, who is a prominent lawyer, and those interested in the estates are afraid that all is lost. Wyckoff was the ex-Senator, who is a prominent law-yer, and those interested in the estates are affaid that all is lost. Wyckoff was at one time worth $125,000. When Na-poleon Ives went under Wyckoff had $10,000 of his own money and $25,000 of persons invested with Ives. All this was lost, and Wyckoff has been struggling to pay the interest on the money over since.
